The 2009 GREEN REEL ENVIRONMENTAL FILM FESTIVAL AT THE CITY PLAYHOUSE THEATRE

VAUGHAN, ON - The City Playhouse will again roll out the "Green" carpet on January 16 & 17, 2009 for The 2009 Green Reel Environmental Film Festival. The festival features an environmentally-themed and thought provoking collection of award-winning international documentaries, mainstream Hollywood entertainment and independent productions. The schedule of over twenty films includes several free screenings which are sponsored, in part, courtesy of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and the National Film Board of Canada. The list of films includes "Encounters At The End Of The World", "Garbage Warrior", "The Price of Sugar", "Good Morning Khandahar" and "Sharkwater", Morgan Spurlock's controversial "Where In The World Is Osama Bin Laden?", the Award Winning "Up The Yangtze" and the world premiere of the independent vermicomposting documentary "SQUIRM - The Story of Cathy's Crawly Composters".

Over 20 environmental vendors and community organizations will be showcasing their products and services in the theatre lobby area during the two day event. New for the whole family this year is a performance by the clown sisters Morro & Jasp in their critically acclaimed environmental show, "Go Green!" Morro & Jasp perform each morning at 10:30am. Tickets are $8 each or admission is included with the purchase of a Festival Pass or Day Pass

Tickets are $5 per person for each screening, $12 for a day pass or a Festival pass is $20 per person. Tickets can be purchased at the City Playhouse Box Office: 905-882-SHOW (7469).
